KEEPING IT SIMPLE

AG PRINTERS JOINS WITH INTERSTATE GRAPHICS TO FILL GAP IN FIELD SIGN MARKET

LAFAYETTE, Ind., September 8, 2022— Ag Printers, the top marketing and labeling solutions provider for the agriculture industry, and Interstate Graphics, the leading supplier of custom field signage for the agriculture industry, have teamed together to provide a complete suite of printed solutions to their customers.

“The partnership of Ag Printers and Interstate Graphics will help provide our customers with unprecedented capabilities and value, allowing them to simplify the print buying process,” said Interstate Graphics president and co-owner, Stan Valiulis.

“Working with Interstate Graphics is an exciting next step for Ag Printers as we continuously look for ways to meet even more of our customers’ needs,” said Ag Printers president, Sara Hamelman. “This collaboration will allow us to offer more high-quality products and services to our customers as we help them reach their marketing goals.”

Customers can continue to contact Ag Printers for all their printing needs and to get Interstate Graphics signs going forward. The combined print offering now allows customers to order field signs, along with Ag Printers’ traditionally offered products.

ABOUT THE COMPANIES

Built upon the need for compliance and full-service marketing within the small seed industry, Ag Printers started in 2005 and have been helping their clients fashionably succeed ever since. Ag Printers offers a wide variety of marketing solutions including catalogs, brochures, tech sheets, bag labels, field sign labels, bulk box signage, and custom stationary. Ag Printers is a subsidiary of SDI Innovations.
